This 1974 session was originally released on the beloved blues label Sonet Records as LEGACY OF THE BLUES, part of a series of albums featuring blues artists performing their own material in intimate settings. The set, recorded as a live-in-the-studio session during a 1974 Scandinavian tour, features Sunnyland Slim (Albert Luandrew) on piano and vocals, rolling through a loose but never lazy procession of favorites like "I Had It Hard" and "Get Hip To Yourself" with sly, easy good humor and palpable emotional depth. ---cduniverse.com
