Johnny Winter - Scorchin' Blues (1992)

1. Walking By Myself 2. Divin' Duck 3. One Step At A Time 4. Bladie Mae 5. Mad Blues 6. It Was Rainin' 7. Mean Mistreater 8. Mother-In-Law Blues 9. Dallas 10. Mean Town Blues (Live) Johnny Winter (vocals, guitar, electric guitar, slide guitar, harp, bass guitar, drums); Randy Jo Hobbs (vocals); Jon Paris, Pat Rush (guitar); Bob Margolin (electric guitar); Pat Ramsey, James Cotton , Big Walter Horton (harp); Edgar Winter, Pinetop Perkins (piano); Tommy Shannon, Charles Calmese (electric bass); Willie "Big Eyes" Smith, Bobby Torello (drums); Bobby Caldwell , "Uncle" John Turner (percussion).

Scorchin' Blues marries tracks from Johnny Winter's early Columbia albums -- including the classic National steel-driven "Dallas" from his 1969 debut -- with material from his return-to-roots Blue Sky period in the late '70s. The aggressive playing and raunchy vocals will appeal to both blues and rock fans, and Ben Sandmel crams an authoritative biography into seven pages, complete with interesting Winter quotes. The one downside: a miserly ten tracks spread over only 45 minutes of playing time. --- Roch Parisien, allmusic.com
