Dvorak - New World Symphony No.9 in E Minor (Szell) [1981]

01. I. Adagio; Allegro molto 02. II. Largo 03. III. Scherzo Molto vivace 04. IV. Allegro con fuoco Cleveland Orchestra George Szell – conductor

Played by The Cleveland Orchestra with Szell, this recording is obviously going to be fantastic and perfectly played. But this recording is so much more than that. I could not believe the energy in this recording. Just listen to the last movement, and if your pulse is not racing by the end, then your probably dead. Szell really pushes the orchestra to the edge, but you never feel like they will fall off. The finale at the end is so swift and exhilerating; some would say maybe it is rushed, but the tempi are definately right--it creates great excitement. The big solos in the 2nd movement are very well done, but ultimalely, i feel like this disc is worth buying just to hear the last movement. It surpasses all other recordings of the new world bye far. ---john (Rochester, NY), amazon.com download: uploaded anonfiles yandex 4shared solidfiles mediafire mega filecloudio

back