Leszek Mozdzer was the originator and producer of the album from beginning to the end; he not only directed the recordings himself but he also is the author of several compositions. It is an offer for the listener who is be looking for sounds familiar to the aesthetics of improvised music, acoustic sound, and who values classical music. The material on the album is very diverse, both compositions and songs are carefully arranged but very swinging, with the rhythm section caring out complicated rhythmic divisions. A few moody, nostalgic melodies, stylishly colored jazz ballads, few delicate electronics touches... and a special bonus - the final track with Leszek Mozdzer debuting as a ...singer (!!!) --- productsfrompoland.com
