Deborah Brown - All Too Soon (2012)

1. Light In Your Eyes 5:24 2. Evenin' 6:47 3. Like It Was Before 5:34 4. Arrival 4:28 5. Indian Love Call 6:55 6. The Peacocks 6:54 7. All Too Soon 7:18 8. 625 4:19 9. Thanks 5:05 10. Fine Together 5:15 11. One Hundred Dreams From Now 6:44 12. Hard To Say Goodbye 3:26

Deborah Brown has been traveling the globe for many years, presenting her music to rave reviews. Frequently performing throughout the United States, Europe, London, and Russia. She has performed with jazz legends such as Johnny Griffin, Clark Terry, Slide Hampton, Roy Hargrove and many more. Those experiences allowed her to explore the true roots of jazz and to develope her sound with a new generation of jazz musicians. If you like to hear beautiful singing, scatting done with skill and ease, you'll love this music. She's at home with the blues, bebop and contemporary swinging jazz. The exciting quintet, JazzXpress, from Holland and Bobby Watson, a fabulous tenor saxaphonist who played with Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers bring the music to life. All of these artists are extraodinary in their own right. Recorded in Kansas City, home of legendary saxaphonist, Charlie Parker, BBQ and fun. We hope you'll enjoy this great collection of melodies hand picked for everyone's enjoyment. ---cdbaby.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mega 4shared mediafire

back