Delivering another round of cool vocal sides from the Atlantic vaults, Rhino comes through with a second helping of tracks from across the jazz spectrum. Slightly better than the first volume and packing 18 cuts, Atlantic Jazz Vocals: Voices of Cool, Vol. 2 takes in traditional jazz work from Betty Carter and Carmen McCrae, as well as more pop and soul offerings by Bobby Darin and Aretha Franklin. Mostly, though, one gets a chance to hear such obscure and unsung talents as Nancy Harrow, Austin Cromer, and Lurlean Hunter. And for those in need of more readable reference points, the disc still showcases plenty of marquee numbers from the likes of Mel Tormé, Chris Connor, and Mose Allison. Enjoy. --- Stephen Cook, Rovi
