

Papa Don McMinn - Black Guitar Blues (2010)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 24 January 2012 20:56 - Last Updated Tuesday, 11 June 2013 11:49

Papa Don McMinn - Black Guitar Blues (2010)

1. That's What I Get For Thinkin' 3:30 play 2. Mean And Evil Woman 4:12 3. Big Brown Eyes 4:57 4. Black Guitar 3:32 5. My Love Light's Shining Again 6:47 6. Riding On The Euro Rail 4:58 7. Big Leg Woman 4:47 8. Miss You Like The Devil 3:39 play
9. Miss Maudie 4:07 10. When Marley Got The Blues 4:03

Papa Don McMinn is a Memphis Music legend.

He was instrumental in the rebirth of the Home of the Blues: Beale Street in Memphis Tennessee. During the mid-1980s, Papa Don's band had the "house gig" at Rum Boogie on the corner of Beale and Highway 61. Everyone who was anyone was there, and when the big names came to town to record or perform, there was only one place to go - to see Papa Don McMinn and his Rum Boogie band.

Twenty five years later, Papa Don is still creating and perpetuating his special brand of Southern Music, a concoction of Delta and Boogie Blues. Papa Don's current band, Nightrain, is anchored by his sons, Doug on drums and Rome on bass.

Don has performed all across the planet, and he's worked and recorded with the likes of Memphis Slim, John Mayall, Bobby "Blue" Bland, and Albert King, among others. Some of the notables who've made cameo appearances with Papa Don's band are Joe Walsh, Gregg Allman, Rufus Thomas, Jon Bonjovi, Billy F Gibbons, and Eddie Floyd. --- locobop.com

Papa Don McMinn - Black Guitar Blues (2010)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 24 January 2012 20:56 - Last Updated Tuesday, 11 June 2013 11:49

download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire ziddu

back