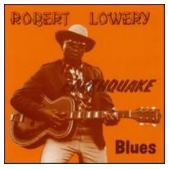
Robert Lowery – Earthquake Blues (1994)



1. Monologue/Honey Babe 2. Monologue/Come on in to My Kitchen 3. Monologue/Ramblin on My Mind 4. Monologue/Earthquake Blues 5. Midnight Run 6. Monologue/One Kind of Favor 7. Big Road 8. Monologue/Crossroads 9. Fan It 10. Interlude Blues 11. They Call Me the Blues Man Robert Lowery - guitar, vocals

Recorded on Robert Lowery's front porch in 1989, Earthquake Blues features the bluesman telling stories and playing songs on his acoustic guitar. His blues is in the tradition of Lightinin' Hopkins and Robert Johnson -- he weaves stories and plays deceptively complex rhythms. Earthquake Blues offers proof that traditional blues is alive and well -- and vital -- in the latter half of the 20th century.

download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire zidd u back