

Lucky Peterson – Ridin' (1984)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 24 October 2014 15:38 - Last Updated Thursday, 22 April 2021 15:18

Lucky Peterson – Ridin' (1984)

1. Ridin' 2. Don't Answer the Door 3. Farther up the Road 4. Kinda Easy Like 5. Baby, What You Want Me to Do 6. Green Onions 7. Little Red Rooster 8. You Don't Have to Go
Lucky Peterson - Composer, Organ, Piano, Vocals Ray Allison - Drums Jerry Gordon - Producer
Melvin Taylor - Guitar Didier Tricard - Producer Titus Williams - Bass

As a child prodigy, keyboardist and organist Lucky Peterson's exploits were legendary. The stories grew even more widespread as he became a teen and stints with Little Milton and Bobby "Blue" Bland only added to his fame. But Peterson's records have not always justified or reaffirmed his reputation. That is not the case with the cuts on this 1984 set, recently reissued by Evidence. The spiraling solos, excellent bridges, turnbacks, pedal maneuvers, and soulful accompaniment are executed with a relaxed edge and confident precision. If you have wondered whether Lucky Peterson deserves the hype and major label bonanza, these songs are the real deal. ---Ron Wynn, allmusic.com download (mp3 @256 kbs):

yandex mediafire mega ulozto solidfiles workupload

back

Lucky Peterson – Ridin' (1984)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 24 October 2014 15:38 - Last Updated Thursday, 22 April 2021 15:18
