Earl King - The Sonet Blues Story (1977)

1 Let's Make A Better World 2 Trick Bag 3 Do, Re, Mi 4 One And One 5 Time For The Sun To Rise 6 Always A First Time 7 Baby Sittin' 8 Mama And Papa 9 The Panic's On 10 Come Let The Good Times Roll Bass – George French Drums – Bob French Piano – Maurice Richard Tenor Saxophone – Dave Lastie Tenor Saxophone, Baritone Saxophone – Clarence Ford Vocals, Guitar – Earl King

This killer little set features the great Earl King doing what he does best, playing R&B-oriented blues and jump tunes. Recorded in 1977 for the Sonet label -- a label that imported American blues greats to play with British and European session players -- this volume is ragged but right. There is an exercise in funky blues on "Trick Bag." But it's the more driving, soul-oriented tunes that work best, as evidenced by "Always a First Time," "Time for That Sun to Rise," and "The Picnic's On." ---Thom Jurek, AllMusic Review
