Eddie Taylor - I Feel So Bad (1972)

1 I Feel So Bad 2 Jackson Town 3 Stop Breaking Down 4 13 Highway 5 Stroll Out West 6 Sittin' Here Thinkin' 7 Going Upside Your Head 8 Twelve Year Old Boy 9 There'll Be A Day 10 Bull Cow Blues 11 Wreck on 83 Highway 12 Blues in the Rain
Personnel: Eddie Taylor (vocal, guitar); Philip Walker (guitar); George Smith (harmonica); David Il (saxophone, percussion); Jimmy Sones (piano); Charles Jones (bass); Johnny Tucker (drums); Little H. Williams (percussion).

One of the Chicago guitarist's most satisfying contemporary albums, this 1972 set (first issued on Advent) was cut not in the Windy City, but in L.A. in 1972, with a combo featuring Phillip Walker on second guitar and George Smith on harp. Eddie Taylor was no strict traditionalist; he was as conversant with funk-tinged modern rhythms as with Delta-based styles, and he exhibits both sides of his musical personality on this one. ---Bill Dahl, Rovi
