Amazing. Stan webb is a real loser in 1978. His band is out of subject with punk and new wave. "The Creeper" was not a real good album, and the interest in Chicken Shack diminished, apart in Germany. Webb signed with a german label ,and recorded this album with the same musicians as "The Creeper"; But this one is real good ! There are great heavy blues-rock songs : "The End", "Little Bird", "It Wasn't Me". If you like Chicken Shack ans stan Webb, you must rediscover this album. It's a forgotten classic.
