

Corey Stevens And Texas Flood - Blue Drop Of Rain (1995)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 15 October 2013 16:02 -

Corey Stevens And Texas Flood - Blue Drop Of Rain (1995)

01 - Gone Too Long 02 - Blue Drops Of Rain 03 - Crosscut Saw 04 - I Got A Rich Man's Woman 05 - It's Over 06 - Back In Time 07 - I'll Play The Blues 08 - The Brothers 09 - Headshrinker 10 - Goin' Crazy Musicians: Will McGregor - Bass David Salinas - Drums Corey Stevens - Guitar, Vocals Ben Coonen - Guitar Mike Finnigan - Organ Dan Grenier - Guitar (Rhythm)

This first project by Corey Stevens is an energetic, witty combination of country, rock and blues. Stevens exhibits a talent for writing the kind of songs that appeal to a wide variety of listeners. Always poignant, Stevens can cover a tune and make it his own, as he does here with the R.G. Ford song "Crosscut Saw." He can also hold his own when tackling a Stevie Ray Vaughan number -- his version of "Lenny" is graphic in its approach and delivery. As for his own tunes, "Gone Too Long," "Goin' Crazy" and the title cut all come across with panache. A most impressive first round for a man with the promise of a long career. ---Jana Pendragon, Rovi download: uploaded anonfiles yandex 4shared solidfiles mediafire mega filecloudio

back