If you have an ear for great Blues & Blues Rock played by an absolute maestro on the harp, backed up by tight, tight musicians, then just go out & buy this. Although I thought the cover of Crossroads to be a bit too fast & heavy - my personal taste only but, this will always be a Cream/Clapton song to me - there was no problem whatsoever with the rest. And, for Godsake, DO NOT leave this planet without at least once putting on the headphones, turning up the volume to your liking and listening to the last three tracks, covers of Classic Blues/Rock - It is just impossible to describe the quality of voice & harp & back-up! Highly recommend. ---
