For secular aficionados, Darrell Mansfield is the red hot, choice-of-the-stars muso who has clocked up sessions with Jon Bon Jovi, Loverboy, Eddie Van Halen and Billy Idol. But for enthralled festival crowds at Greenbelt or Flevo, Darrell is the man to help the church re-discover the blues. An historical aside (well, make it brief. Ed.) It was revered blues singer Johnny Shines who once remarked, "church music and the blues is all one and the same" and blues giant T-Bone Walker who commented "of course the blues come a lot from the church...the first time I ever heard a boogie-woogie piano was the first time I went to church."
