Richard 'Rip Lee' Pryor of Carbondale was born into music. In his youth, he yearned to be just like his father, renowned blues musician Snooky Pryor. The two recorded and toured together in the 1990s, but when his father returned to retirement, Pryor decided to focus on his own career. After retiring from his job as a carpenter at SIU and battling cancer, Pryor returned to the music scene in 2011. He has since completed three tours of South America and one of Switzerland, as well as re-connected with the Southern Illinois music scene. --- thesouthern.com
