Chino's playing style is unique. He mixes blues with his own style to produce an unmistakable, highly personal sound. This is dynamic, rich, balanced blues. Chino is an outstanding guitarist and a remarkable vocalist who transmits his fury and his passion through a peculiar voice that defies classification.

Live, his explosive show is capable of bringing the most demanding audience to their collective feet.

With The Big Bet, featuring Rod Deville on double bass and Giggs Nother on drums, Chino won second place at the 2013 European Blues Challenge, representing Spain. --- llull.cat
