Thomas C. McDonald — bass guitar and vocals Eddie Christmas — drums and percussion

Though he was born in Heidelberg Germany (Army Brat), Mark is 3rd generation New Orleans. Since he first ventured down that long, dark hallway at age 12 to meet Hank Mackie, legendary New Orleans guitar teacher and performer, Penton's musical style has grown and evolved to make him a true master of his art.

His self-described style is blues, funk and stuff. Throw some rock, gospel and soul into the mix and that only begins to touch the "stuff" he's made of. His earthy, soulful voice blends perfectly with his inspired guitar playing to take his audiences to uncharted territory.

From getting his start playing CYO dances in New Orleans's 9th ward to USO shows in S Korea, Bluegrass in the Adirondacks, Funk, R&B and Soul in D.C. and Beach Music in Virginia Beach, Mark has done it all.

Mark has played with Eddie Kendricks (The Temptations), Chuck Brown (and The Soul Searchers), Fat Ammon's Band and Tom Jones as well as sharing the stage with countless others. ---thepentones.com
