The blues band from Down Under present studio album number five featuring their trademark gutsy blues / rock songs. The opening two tracks deliver solid boogie with an infectious beat. The album is laced with gutsy blues harmonica, electric slide, and powerful vocal harmonies over catchy lyrics. From the soulful and bluesy 'One more Night With You', the acoustic surf slide of 'Ride My Way Home' to the reprise of the bands stomp 'Castlemaine Drain' the new recording showcases the bands commitment to creating down the highway music with a cheeky grin. ---cdbaby.com

Bluesville Station continue to deliver the goods with their original brand of coastal blues rock and boogie music releasing their seventh studio album Classic sound of dual tone electric guitars riffs, big balls bass, cracking drums, steel rail slide and gutsy blues harmonica. Songs based on traditional twelve bar rock and blues, percussive rhythms and stomps that showcase tales of travel and trouble, cars, money, mysterious women and on the road band adventures ---rctorrent.com
