Soul infused jazz funk by a blues hustler in the heart of Texas; sure, it makes even less sense when written down, but make no mistake: Jeff makes it look too easy, cruising along with expert craftsmanship and complexity whilst never losing its innate intricacy and unexpected accessibility. Basically, crushed red velvet for your ears, and he even sneaks a country song in there, that somehow never seems out of place. Superb - one day they will find his albums at the Goodwill, and be happy they did. –cdbaby.com
