Drums, Percussion – Roger Earl Lead Guitar – Kim Simmonds Rhythm Guitar – Lonesome Dave
Vocals – Chris Youlden + Piano – Kim Simmonds (A2) Piano – Chris Youlden (A4, B1, B4) Acoustic Guitar, Guitar [Bottleneck] – Lonesome Dave (A5)

This high-water mark by the band finds them softening their rougher edges and stretching out into jazz territory, yet still retaining a blues foundation. There's not a bad cut here, with enough variety (bottleneck slide, acoustic guitar, horns, and strings) to warrant frequent late-night listenings. "A Hard Way to Go," "Needle and Spoon," and "Stay While the Night Is Young" are especially strong, as are two instrumental numbers. Unfortunately, leader Kim Simmonds lost his greatest asset when vocalist Chris Youlden quit for an ill-fated solo career after this recording. Youlden had one of the most distinctive voices in British blues, and Savoy would never fully recover from his exit. ---Peter Kurz, AllMusic Review
