Tracy's... latest release "Fierce" is a throwback to the good old days. A multi-talented singer songwriter (she also plays keys and flute), Tracy is not afraid to have equally talented musicians back her up. Personal favorites are "You Can't Come to my Party", and "I Love me More". Like all her songs, these are things that one can identify with in different ways depending on your personal perspective and history." ---Scott Boatright, tracykash.com

Tracy Kash began her musical life as a classical musician. She received a Bachelor's degree from University of North Texas- and a Master's degree from the venerable Boston Conservatory, in orchestral music and music theory. Tracy is an accomplished flutist, vocalist, composer, arranger, and pianist.. Tracy has composed for and performed with a variety of ensembles in and around the Detroit area, including Pebble Creek Chamber Orchestra, Theatre Bizarre Orchestra, Nighthawks Jazz Orchestra and her own soul ensemble, Tracy Kash and the Bro' Fos. She recently released her 4th studio album, Fierce, in April 2019. Her previous releases were nominated for Detroit Music Awards and her 2010 release, "Sound Truth" was chosen as one of the "Top 10 of 2010" by the Detroit MetroTimes culture magazine. She is currently collaborating with award-winning poet Diane DeCillis on creating a musical of the absurd. She has also written companion music for the historical novel "Remembrance", by Heather Buchanan and inspired by the Harlem Hellfighters during World War I. ---tracykash.com
