If you want the REAL deal, then this is it. Be transported to a barrelhouse atmosphere as Peter Green hooks up again with Eddie Boyd, Mick Fleetwood and John McVie to give the deepest feeling to what true blues is all about. The solos are sensitive and full of so much feeling they make you ache. If you are tired of hearing posers and rockers trying to play the blues, then you will not be disappointed in this little known classic. There is not one single ho-hum on it. Just real classic genuine blues as it should be - and -here- played. Enjoy. ---amazon.com
