

Rod Piazza & The Mighty Flyers - Alphabet Blues (1992)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 25 June 2013 16:11 -

Rod Piazza & The Mighty Flyers - Alphabet Blues (1992)

1 Alphabet Blues 2 So Glad to Have the Blues 3 Bounce 4 Blues In '92 5
Somebody 6 Hydramatic Woman 7 Tangled With a Woman 8 Come On Home 9 No
Pretty Presents 10 Can't Get That Stuff No More 11 Skin Deep 12 Night's End
Musicians: Rod Piazza (vocals, harmonica); Honey Alexander (piano); Alex Schultz (guitar);
Bill Stuve (bass); Jimi Bott (drums).

Another fine effort from Rod Piazza and the Mighty Flyers, Alphabet Blues alternates between first-rate slow blues and cooking uptempo boogies and shuffles, both of which showcase their versatile, many-sided talents. There are a few weak songs, but the album on the whole is quite entertaining. – Thom Owens, Rovi

Piazza's career has spanned 5 decades now and even today he remains a relevant force in the world of harmonica led blues. "Alphabet Blues" was released in 1992 and many long time fans consider it to be one of his best. All of the band's trademarks are here. Piazza's incredible harp playing and soulful singing. Miss Honey's outstanding boogie woogie piano, Alex Schultz always tasty guitar and the solid rhythm section of Bill Stuve and Jimi Bott. The album is anchored by one of Piazza's most popular numbers "Blues In '92" which he recently revisited on his most recent album "Soul Monster". Piazza and The Flyers are one of the rare blues bands that seem to be able to capture their live sound and energy in the studio. If you are looking to explore this band's back catalogue this one would be a great place to start. ---Steven Sly, amazon.com

Rod Piazza & The Mighty Flyers - Alphabet Blues (1992)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 25 June 2013 16:11 -

download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire zidd
u

back