

Margaret Rizza - Her Music for Advent and Christmas (2014)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 28 November 2015 17:14 -

Margaret Rizza - Her Music for Advent and Christmas (2014)

*1.Silent, surrendered 2.Magnificat 3.Come, Lord 4.The Lord is my light 5.Sanctum nomen
6.The Lord is my light And My Salvation 7.Chant for instruments 8.Christus natus est 9.Jesus is our joy 10.Song of the angels 11.As Joseph was a-walking 12.In the Lord is my joy
13.Adoramus te, Domine Deus 14.O magnum mysterium*

For ease of use we have collected together on this single CD all the compositions with Advent and Christmas themes that have appeared on Margaret Rizza's four major albums - Fountain of Life, Fire of Love, River of Peace, and Light in Our Darkness. --- eden.co.uk

Margaret Rizza studied at the Royal College of Music, London, and completed her training in Italy. She has utilized her gifts as a world-class opera singer, a broadcaster, and a choral conductor throughout her career. Since 1986, Rizza has dedicated herself to the world of spirituality and to the wider aspect of music in the community. She leads many retreats, days of prayer, days of music and meditation, and vocal and choral workshops. Occasionally a new, distinctive sound appears in sacred music. It has happened again with Margaret Rizza's wonderful music.

This rich, deeply contemplative music depends for its effect on simple, repetitive melodies carrying short, usually scriptural texts.

Margaret Rizza - Her Music for Advent and Christmas (2014)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 28 November 2015 17:14 -

Each of the pieces may be sung by one person alone, by two or three gathered together, by hundreds, or by a choir. They may be unaccompanied, accompanied by a single instrument or by a whole group. The choice is yours and everything you need for both voices and instruments is in the full scores. --- kevinmayhew.com download (mp3 @192 kbs):

yandex 4shared mega mediafire cloudmailru oboom uplea

back