1. Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach, Concerto for Cello and String Orchestra Wq.170 2. Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach, Sonata for Flute Violin and b.c. Wq.145 Part II, "Largo" + Part III, "Allegro" 3. Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach, Sinfonia for String Orchestra Wq.182 no.4 in A 4. Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach, Sinfonia for String Orchestra Wq.182 nr.3 in C 5. Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach, Concerto for flute and String Orchestra Wq.22 Hidemi Suzuki (cello) Stefano Rossi (violin) Tineke Steenbrink (harpsichord) Alexis Kossenko (flute) Holland Baroque Society Stefano Rossi (conductor) 2012.05.28, St. Oswaldkirche te Regensburg

Hidemi Suzuki and Alexis Kossenko may both be considered close friends of C.P.E. Bach. Suzuki recorded his cello concertos together with Bach Collegium Japan and Alexis Kossenko made recordings of his traverso concertos with Arte dei Suonatori (Poland). Both soloists accompany Holland Baroque Society in its exciting encounter with the symphonies, so that we will be able to hear how C.P.E. Bach sounds to these famous specialists. ---
