Beethoven - Violin Concerto (Heifetz) [1955]

1. Side A 2. Side B Jascha Heifetz – violin Boston Symphony Orchestra Charles Munch – conductor, 1955

"Violin Concerto in D" is one of the most melodious pieces composed by Beethoven. A kind of symphonic quality with cheerful and peaceful atmosphere. A classical masterpiece in the beginning of stereo recording on RCA Records (Heifetz's second recording).
