

Manuel de Falla - Noches en los jardines de España - El sombrero de tres picos (Domingo)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 02 February 2013 17:53 - Last Updated Thursday, 07 November 2013 15:52

Manuel de Falla - Noches en los jardines de España - El sombrero de tres picos (Domingo)

1. Noches En Los Jardines De Espana: En el Generalife 2. Noches En Los Jardines De Espana: Danza lejana 3. Noches En Los Jardines De Espana: En los Jardines de la Sierra de
4. El Sombrero de dos Picos: Introduccion - Allegro ma non troppo 5. El Sombrero de dos Picos: Part 1: La Tarde 6. El Sombrero de dos Picos: Danza de la Molinera (Fandango) 7. El Sombrero de dos Picos: Las uvas - Vivo 8. El Sombrero de dos Picos: Danza de los vecinos 9. El Sombrero de dos Picos: La Noche: Danza del Molinero 10. El Sombrero de dos Picos: La Noche: Danza del Corregidor 11. El Sombrero de dos Picos: La Noche: Danza final (Jota)
Daniel Barenboim - Piano Jennifer Larmore - Mezzo-Soprano Chicago Symphony Orchestra
Plácido Domingo – conductor

'Noches en los Jardines de España' trembles with the furious energy lurking just beneath the surface. Pianist Daniel Barenboim works an extensive palate of colors and textures, calm delicate notes swelling into deeply resonating chords cascading at a furious pace. The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Plácido Domingo, provides a landscape of strings and horns giving Barenboim's piano a distinctively Spanish feel. 'El Sombrero de Tres Picos' is a ballet with all the ceremony of a bullfight. Music inspired by the set designed by Pablo Picasso, its introduction is marked by the flourish of castanets and shouts of "ole." The body of the work may focus on more traditional instrumentation, but its use of rhythm maintains the feel of the piece as a whole. The series of dances, each more entertaining than the last, builds to a thoroughly satisfying conclusion. --- arkivmusic.com

download: gett 4shared

back

Manuel de Falla - Noches en los jardines de España - El sombrero de tres picos (Domingo)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 02 February 2013 17:53 - Last Updated Thursday, 07 November 2013 15:52
