

Felix Mendelssohn – Violin Concerto (Heifetz) [1954]

Written by bluesever

Friday, 23 October 2009 16:50 - Last Updated Thursday, 20 February 2014 23:15

Felix Mendelssohn – Violin Concerto (Heifetz) [1954]

1. Allegro molto appassionato (E minor) 2. Andante (C major) 3. Allegretto non troppo – Allegro molto vivace (E major) Jascha Heifetz – violin Philharmonia Orchestra New York
Guido Cantelli – conductor Recorded live at Carnegie Hall, New York, 14th March, 1954

This recording was taken from the same excellent collection of tapes which has yielded so many Toscanini recordings recently. Thanks to further refinements to the Pristine Audio XR process I have been able to do without any digital tape hiss reduction whatsoever, despite the original being particularly badly afflicted. The sound is clear, bright and full-bodied, with little to indicate that it might be more than fifty years old beyond it being a mono recording.
---pristineclassical.com

download: uploaded filecloudio yandex gett 4shared mediafire solidfiles mega nornar

back