Karol Szymanowski – Violin Sonata In D Minor op.9 (Oistrakh) [1954]

1. I. Allegro moderato
2. II. Andantino tranquillo e dolce
3. III. Finale: Allegro molto, quasi presto

David Oistrakh – violin Vladimir Yampolsky - piano

Although they are less central to his output than orchestral, vocal or piano music, Karol Szymanowski wrote a number of works for violin and piano, spanning his entire career. Composed in 1904, the emotionally turbulent Violin Sonata is one of several large-scale instrumental works that emerged during Szymanowski's first phase, in which the influences of Chopin and Scriabin are combined with those of the German late-Romantics. --- naxos.com
