Joe ZAWINUL Syndicate – Live In Stuttgart 1997

Jazz Open, Beethovensaal(in Kultur- und Kongreßzentrum Liederhalle),

Stuttgart, Germany, 26th July 1997

"This band is my second family" – that's what Joe Zawinul often said about his Syndicate. With "The Syndicate" he created a style, which is characterized by a unique Groove and Power.

Josef Erich Zawinul (July 7, 1932 – September 11, 2007) was an Austrian jazz keyboardist and composer. First coming to prominence with saxophonist Cannonball Adderley, Zawinul went on to play with trumpeter Miles Davis, and to become one of the creators of jazz fusion, an innovative musical genre that combined jazz with elements of rock and world music. Later, Zawinul co-founded the groups Weather Report and the world fusion music-oriented Zawinul Syndicate. Additionally, he made pioneering use of electric piano and synthesizers.
