Three years after the sensational spiritual recording by this duo Goin Home [ASCS 1079] producer Nils Winther had Archie and Horace in the studio again. The theme this time was traditional blues. Once again the Shepp-Parlan duo made one of the best selling SteepleChase releases. Englands Gramophone magazine called the duo "a powerful and ultimately inspirational collaborarion." This recording was awarded the Deutscher Schallplattenpreis for Modern Und Jazz-Rock of 1982 by the prestigious Deutsche Phono Akademie. The recording is so clear that you can hear the saxophone-flaps like a real concert. Bluesy ballads played with deep feeling.
