

Airborne - Heavy Vibes (2004)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 19 May 2011 13:00 - Last Updated Friday, 11 July 2014 20:42

Airborne - Heavy Vibes (2004)

01. I See (4:56) 02. Trust in Love (6:06) 03. Hip Hop (4:46) play 04. Loves Come Back (6:13) 05. Lizard Island (6:42) 06. A Ray of Hope (6:24) 07. After the Storm (6:30) 08. Nicole (6:29) 09. You Are Everywhere (5:20)

play

10. Turn Me Around (4:43) 11. To Be Loved (5:34) 12. A Smooth Ride (6:24)

Musicians: Thomas Borino (piano, organ, midi keyboard setup, vocals), Thomas Sansone (sax, flute, vocals), Gregory Borino (guitars, vocals), Dean Kosh (drums), Steven Clarke (bass, vocals), Asher Delorme (Latin and African percussion), Elizabeth Dellinger (vocals)

Tons of percussion...tons of energy...tons of soul...that's what you're gonna hear in the fourth release from one of the most talented contemporary jazz bands around...the Connecticut-based group, Airborne. Their musical recipe, in their own words, "takes a can of straight ahead jazz with Caribbean and Latino influences, pours in a few tablespoons of jazz fusion and a heaping cup of urban street funk; then cooks all ingredients with pure technical talent till it gets boiling hot." Precisely! You can definitely hear and feel the positive vibes on HEAVY VIBES...on every song...in every performance. This is really a cookin' album! This band has been around since the late 80's, and has performed extensively worldwide. They've made numerous television appearances, and are heavily involved in musical education as members of the New England Foundation for the Arts' prestigious Performing Arts Roster. They're obviously a powerfully positive force for jazz, and you can't miss the quality and energy on this project. From the intoxicating Latin percussion that kicks off track 1 ("I See") right on through each and every tune on HEAVY VIBES, you'll find yourself totally engaged in the Airborne experience. My personal faves on this disc are "Turn Me Around," which reminds me a lot of Spyro Gyra; the soulful vocal duet, "To Be Loved"; and "A Smooth Ride" (The title says it all!). Get yourself a copy of HEAVY VIBES, and you can forget spending money on chemical mood elevators! ~Scott O'Brien

Airborne - Heavy Vibes (2004)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 19 May 2011 13:00 - Last Updated Friday, 11 July 2014 20:42

With four albums to their credit, Airborne returns with a 12-track compact disc entitled "Heavy Vibes." Accented with elements of straight-ahead jazz with Caribbean and Latino influences, Airborne soars with musical intensity that is hard to ignore. The New Haven, Conn., band formed in the late 1980s, presenting an example of a group who has survived the ups and downs of a multifaceted career intermixed with dedication to music, skills and personal goals. In listening to "Heavy Vibes," the listener will appreciate the romantic overtones in several tracks, as well as the presentation of urban funk. Themes concerning peace, fun, excitement are visible as Airborne shares their special cargo of high energy contemporary jazz. Although the vocal accompaniments seem strained at times, overall the musical overtones of Airborne is strong, and listeners will appreciate "Heavy Vibes. --- www.jazzreview.com download: uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire solidfiles mega zalivalka filecloudio

anonfiles
oboom

back