

Lyambiko – Sings Gershwin (2012)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 23 February 2012 09:50 - Last Updated Saturday, 24 January 2015 09:49

Lyambiko – Sings Gershwin (2012)

01 – 'S Wonderful 02 – It Ain't Necessary So 03 – Love Walked In 04 – Somebody Loves Me play 05 – I Got Rhythm 06 – Nice Work 07 – Someone to Watch Over Me 08 – Let's Call the Whole Thing Off play 09 – Summertime 10 – They All Laughed 11 – Fascinating Rhythm 12 – Who Cares 13 – Crush 14 – Slap That Bass 15 – How Long Has This Been Going On 16 – A Foggy Day Musicians:
Henry Köbberling (drums), Robin Draganic (double bass), Marque Lowenthal (Grand Piano), Lyambiko (vocals).

"Lyambiko sings Gershwin" is the new promising album of one of the great German jazz singers and already the Thuringian is praised to the skies. No wonder, since she won the 2011 ECHO Jazz in the category "Singer of the Year."

On her new album Lyambiko interpretes known and unknown Gershwin songs in a swinging look. Convincingly, she shows her warm and almost purring voice recognition. Together with her band, consisting of Henry Köbberling (drums), Robin Draganic (double bass) and Marque Lowenthal (Grand Piano) she manages to give the Broadway legend Gershwin a fine memorial made up of his great musical hits reinterpreted. Not just recovered, but relevant studies. Lyambiko follows a number of great jazz legends such as Ella Fitzgerald and Frank Sinatra, who sang the Gershwin interpretations many years before. Here are Lyambiko's interpretations of the great jazz legends.

"I did not only want to make sure that the Gershwin hits that everyone knows were included, but also those that you have not heard yet." says the artist. However, hits like "I Got Rhythm" and "Summertime" are not missing. The latest classic "Porgy and Bess" shows a delightful interpretation of the band in a sensational feeling of giving. The buzzing atmosphere of summer comes here next to the tragic moments very well to the fore.

Lyambiko – Sings Gershwin (2012)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 23 February 2012 09:50 - Last Updated Saturday, 24 January 2015 09:49

"Lyambiko sings Gershwin" is not only a work to listen, but also to witness the different moods that the four-member jazz band interprets and their passion shown.

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

uploaded yandex 4shared mega solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru filecloudio

back