

Hernán Jacinto – Lua (2011)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 31 December 2012 17:32 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 August 2014 23:58

Hernán Jacinto – Lua (2011)

1.A-Frik 5:54 2.Arenales Blues 4:11 3.Brad 8:51 4.Nefertiti 7:19 5.Cuchillos 5:50 6.Lua 7:31 7.Siete 6:43 8.Gaviota 5:29 9.Generador 5:56 10.Like someone in love 8:47

Jerónimo Carmona – double bass (tracks 1,3,4,5,6,7 y 9) Mariano Loíacono – trumpet, flugelhorn (tracks 1,5,8 y 9) Ramiro Flores - sax soprano, clarinet, flute traverse (tracks 1,4,5,8 y 9) Oscar Giunta - drums Hernán Jacinto – piano, keyboards, percussion, vocals + Javier Malosetti – double bass (tracks 2,8 y 10) Oscar Feldman - sax tenor (track 10) Hernán Segret - cello (tracks 5 y 8) Alejandro Oliva - percussion (track 1)

Pianist Hernán Jacinto was born in Buenos Aires in 1981.

He studied piano with Diego Schissi, Guillermo Romero and Ernesto Jodos, and got a scholarship to the Berklee College of Music in Boston. Hernán collaborated with many renowned artists, including Rubén Rada, Luis Alberto Spinetta, Javier Malosetti, Paul Wertico (Pat Metheny Group), Jean Louis Rassinfosse (Chet Baker), Emmanuel Horvilleur, Érica García, Guillermo Vadalá and Gustavo Bergalli. In 2006 he toured Europe extensively alongside Karlheinz Miklin.

At present, in addition to his work as the front man of his own quartet, Hernán is the regular pianist of Pedro Aznar's band, Ramiro Flores's quintet and the Ayelén Zuker-Hernán Jacinto duo. --- buenosairesjazz.gob.ar download: uploaded ziddu 4shared divshare gett

Hernán Jacinto – Lua (2011)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 31 December 2012 17:32 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 August 2014 23:58

back