

Bud Shank - Magical Mystery (1967)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 03 October 2013 15:50 -

Bud Shank - Magical Mystery (1967)

01 Blue Jay Way 02 I Am the Walrus 03 The Fool on the Hill 04 Flying 05 Hello Goodbye 06 Your Mother Should Know 07 Paper Cup 08 Windy 09 Never My Love 10 I Wanna Be Free 11 I Say a Little Prayer Tracks: Chet Baker, Gary Barone (flugelhorns); Bud Shank (alto sax, flute); Dennis Budimir, Herb Ellis (guitar); Robert West (bass); John Guerin (drums); Victor Feldman (percussion).

Bud Shank's second Beatles-titled album of the 60s – and a set that's even groovier than the first! The record features a wonderful jazz-based approach to "second chapter" Beatles – with arranger Bob Florence providing superb arrangements for post-Rubber Soul tunes, which are mixed in with some other hip 60s pop numbers too! Bud plays alto sax and flute – still in the lead on the solos – but also couched wonderfully in work from players who include Chet Baker and Gary Barone on flugelhorns, Herb Ellis and Dennis Budimir on guitars, and Victor Feldman on percussion. Titles include "I Am The Walrus", "Paper Cup", "Windy", "I Wanna Be Free", "Hello Goodbye", "Flying", and "Blue Jay Way". ---Editorial Review download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire solidfiles

back