John Patton - Oh Baby! (1965)

A1 Fat Judy A2 Oh Baby A3 Each Time B1 One To Twelve B2 Night Flight B3 Good Juice
Drums – Ben Dixon Guitar – Grant Green Organ – John Patton Tenor Saxophone – Harold Vick Trumpet – Blue Mitchell

Patton's fourth album for Blue Note. Big John Patton with Grant Green on guitar and Harold Vick on tenor sax. With tunes like "Fat Judy" and "Good Juice," there is no worry about there being a groove. The addition of a trumpet (Blue Mitchell) means you have a horn section, and this tends to be a little much now and again. Although a little on the light side, thanks to Patton and Green, the groove does go down. ---Michael Erlewine, AllMusic Review
