

Charles Mingus - Changes One (1975)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 16 October 2009 10:20 - Last Updated Tuesday, 12 August 2014 15:45

Charles Mingus - Changes One (1975)

1. Remember Rockefeller At Attica 2. Sue's Changes 3. Devil Blues 4. Duke Ellington's Sound Of Love
George Adams - Sax (Tenor), Vocals Charles Mingus - Bass Don Pullen - Piano
Dannie Richmond - Drums Jack Walrath - Trumpet

Charles Mingus' finest recordings of his later period are Changes One and Changes Two, two Atlantic LPs that have been reissued on CD by Rhino. The first volume features four stimulating Mingus originals ("Remember Rockefeller at Attica," "Sue's Changes," "Devil Blues" and "Duke Ellington's Sound of Love") performed by a particularly talented quintet (tenor-saxophonist George Adams who also sings "Devil Blues," trumpeter Jack Walrath, pianist Don Pullen, drummer Dannie Richmond and the leader/bassist). The band has the adventurous spirit and chance-taking approach of Charles Mingus' best groups, making this an easily recommended example of the great bandleader's music. ---Scott Yanow, Rovi download: uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire solidfiles mega zalivalka cloud.mail.ru fileclo

udio
anonfiles
oboom

back