Best known for their close harmony vocals, The Puppini Sisters made their name 10 years ago when their first album Betcha Bottom Dollar won a Gold Disc for international sales. The trio are the 21st century's answer to The Andrews Sisters and have performed all over the world with artists such as Michael Buble and The Real Tuesday Weld.

In a rare treat, The High Life sees original member Rosana Schura return to join fellow 'sisters' Marcella Puppini and Kate Mullins. The girls add their trademark jazz and swing twist to everything from The Andrews Sisters and Elvis to Missy Elliot and David Bowie, as well as some self-penned original songs.

The classically-trained trio are backed on stage by a three-piece band featuring Martin Kolarides on guitar, Henrik Jensen on double bass and Peter Ibbetson on drums, and also play a few instruments of their own with Puppini wheezing away at the accordion and Mullins on the blow-organ. --- Donna Kelly, thereviewshub.com
