Ernestine Anderson, jazz vocalist, is usually known for appearances in jazz clubs in her hometown of Seattle, Washington. This is a live concert recorded at B.B. King's Blues Club in Universal City, California in 1995.

The song "All Blues" made famous by so many jazz legends becomes the most edgy, touching, soulful vocal when Ernestine sings it. Ernestine's vocal on "Only Trust Your Heart" brilliantly reaches to the bottom of her soul. Nobody can match the magic that Ernestine brings to "Sister Moon". She gets inside this song and sings it with every bit of soul she has. "Reach Out" is a cooker! Ernestine gives this one her all. "Simply Love" is Ernestine's cool and very fine love ballad. You won't believe Ernestine's tribute to B.B. King with "The Thrill Is Gone"! She knows just how to sing this one to end all versions! The last song but far from the least song is "It Hurts To Be In Love". This is a hot finale!

This is a fun jazz/blues concert for all Ernestine Anderson fans. If you ever have the chance to see her live, don't miss the opportunity. But until then, this great concert will do quite nicely! ---
