

Miles Davis - More Music from the Legendary Carnegie Hall Concert 1961 [1987]

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 06 March 2012 15:13 - Last Updated Tuesday, 10 February 2015 12:16

Miles Davis - More Music from the Legendary Carnegie Hall Concert 1961 [1987]

1. Concierto de Aranjuez, Pt. 1 (Rodrigo) 9:40 2. Concierto de Aranjuez, Pt. 2 (Rodrigo) 7:07
3. Teo (Davis) 9:14 4. Walkin' (Carpenter) 9:19 5. I Thought About You (Mercer, Van Heusen) 4:42
Personnel: Miles Davis – trumpet Hank Mobley – tenor sax Wynton Kelly – piano
Paul Chambers – bass Jimmy Cobb – drums Gil Evans And His Orchestra

This additional music from his Carnegie Hall concert of 1961 once again features the great trumpeter with the Gil Evans Orchestra (for a 16-minute version of "Concierto De Aranguez") and with his quintet of the period (with tenor-saxophonist Hank Mobley and pianist Wynton Kelly) for three shorter numbers (the modal "Teo," "Walkin'" and "I Thought About You"). It's not essential but Miles Davis fans will enjoy these performances. ---Scott Yanow, All Music Guide download (mp3 @320 kbs):

uploaded yandex 4shared mega mediafire solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru oboom

back