Viva el Principe (Long Live the Prince) is the thirteenth studio album by Mexican pop singer Cristian Castro by Universal Music Latino. The album is a tribute to José José whom Castro considers his musical idol. The album consists of ten tracks in addition to a poem recited by José José. Rafael Pérez-Botija, who wrote songs and produced albums for José José in the past, will be the producer for the album. "La Nave del Olvido" was the first single to be released from the album. ---wiki

Cristian Castro presents his new album "Viva el Principe. The album is a tribute to "El Principe de la Cancion- Jose Jose". Viva El Principe is not a Tribute like others done in the past. This album is fully approved by Jose Jose and it was produced by Rafael Perez Botija the composer and producer of many of Jose Jose's hits in the 70's and 80's.

Viva el Principe respects the original arrangements with a contemporary twist worthy of this era. This album maintains a classic sound that takes us to re-live those years of great romantic hits from one of Mexico's Greatest performers, "El Principe de la Cancion" but in the unique voice of Cristian Castro.

Deluxe consist of 12 Tracks, a poem recited by the one and only Jose Jose plus 11 videos. ---Editorial Reviews

Tan hermosa letra en estas canciones tan classicas. Es increíble lo que puede inspirar esta musica que hoy esta disponible para una nueva generacion. Al comienzo no estaba seguro si Cristian pudiera hacerle justicia al interprete original. Pero indudablemente Cristian ha vuelto al estilo que mas le queda. Este es simplemente el mejor disco romantico del 2010. --- El Pericasso, amazon.com
