

Pérez Prado - Best Mambos (2017)

Written by bluelover

Friday, 25 October 2019 15:57 -

Pérez Prado - Best Mambos (2017)

01. Ole Mambo 02. Al Compas Del Mambo 03. Bombokolea 04. Mambo Del Papelero
05. Cerezo Rosa 06. Mambo No. 5 07. Jumbo Jumbo 08. Asi, Asi 09. Elsi Mambo 10.
Enamorado 11. Lupita 12. Martinica 13. Muchachita 14. Jing A Ling, Jing A Ling 15.
Rosina 16. Go Go Mambo 17. La Nina Popof 18. Ni Hablar 19. Perdido 20. Mambo En
Sax 21. Guao 22. Cuban Mambo 23. El Bombero 24. Jose 25. Kandela 26. Mambo No. 8
27. Latino 28. Mambo Del Ruterio 29. Pianolo 30. Rica

The best mambo songs draw on the unique rhythms that give this Latin-based music genre a flavor all its own. The mambo sound was born in Cuba in the 1930s, but began taking off in earnest in the 1950s, thanks in large part to Cuban band leader and composer Dámaso Pérez Prado. Known as the “King of the Mambo,” Prado began performing mambos regularly after moving to Mexico in the late 1940s. Many of the most famous mambo songs are by Prado, including “Cerezo Rosa,” “Mambo No. 5,” and “Babarabatiri.”

During the 1950s, mambo music went mainstream, with numerous well-known artists covering mambo songs. You’ll find a few of these hits on this top mambo songs list as well, including Dean Martin’s famous version of “Mambo Italiano” and “Papa Loves Mambo” by Perry Como. Other popular artists with good mambo songs include Celia Cruz (“La Madre Rumba”), Tito Puente (“Hong Kong Mambo”), and Tito Rodriguez (“Take the ‘A’ Train”).

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bay files

Pérez Prado - Best Mambos (2017)

Written by bluelover

Friday, 25 October 2019 15:57 -

back