Sarah Riani is a singer from France and was born August 8, 1983 in Lyon (France) of a Moroccan father and a mother of Algerian origin. Both her parents are singers and she has loved singing since her childhood. In 2005, she entered Nouvelle Star (The french version of Pop Idol). She didn't win, but the show helped her career and she got signed by the french record label Bombattak Recordz. She got famous in 2008 with the songs Intouchable and Miroir miroir and for featuring the french rapper Brascos song D'une blessure á l'autre. Her debut album will be released soon. ---theaudiodb.com
