Now 79 features ten songs which reached number one on the UK Singles Chart: "Someone Like You", "The Lazy Song", "Don't Wanna Go Home", "On the Floor", "Glad You Came", "Don't Hold Your Breath", "Give Me Everything", "Party Rock Anthem", "Louder" and "Changed the Way You Kiss Me".

The version of Jennifer Lopez's song "On the Floor" is the solo version, instead of the version featuring Pitbull that reached number one. The version of Lady Gaga's song, "Born This Way", is an unofficial edit,[citation needed] removing the intro and outro of the song. The version of "Bass Down Low" by Dev included on the album is the "Tinie Tempah Remix".

Yes, they have done it again. 40 odd tracks of which over 30 have done well in charts. As with the three previous albums, an excellent selection.

It could of been even better. Black Eyed Peas, Lady Gaga, Eminem, Nicole Scherzinger, Jennifer Lopez ft Wayne, JLS ft Dev and Mann ft Snoop Dogg & Lyaz, all had tracks excluded which one normally would of expected to be included. With these tracks the album might well of been the best NOW album in recent years. Even chart topper 'on the floor' in fact is not the chart version (Jennifer Lopez without Pitbull).

Even so, a pretty fine group of tracks, that is a must for your collection. Still would be a terrific present for anybody interested in the current music scene. --- Red Rose "croydon music" (GB)
