With six studio albums having reached number one in the classical charts, it's easy to see why Katherine Jenkins has sold over 4 million records and was the first British classical crossover artist to have two number one albums in the same year.

'Sweetest Love' is a special collection of romantic classics for the Mothers Day market by Britain's favourite mezzo-soprano. Her versatility of repertoire is exemplified with the soaring melodies of 'Somewhere Over The Rainbow' to popular classical favourite 'The Flower Duet' featuring Kiri Te Kanawa. Also included are pop covers 'Kiss from A Rose' & 'The Prayer' as well as classics 'Absence' and Pachelbel's Canon. --- hmv.com
