Hamilton Park has a really nice sound! This is hamony at it's best! Their blend is unique yet it reminds me of that good old R&B of H-Town, Dru-Hill, Next, and although not as old as the others but Day26 (good thing you got signed by Andre and not Puff!). Not quite BoysIIMen or Jodeci but definitely close. I wish you guys much success and longevity! ---Leslie Brown, hoodoola.com

Hamilton Park may have honed their vocal skills while singing in their church choirs, but they are much more than just four guys who share a love for singing. They are a brotherhood born on the basketball courts of Hamilton Park Recreation Center in Atlanta. Hamilton Park, which is made up of Anthony, Mr. Marcus Lee, Chris Voice and Royce P, turned to both music and basketball as a way to avoid trouble in the streets of Atlanta, and remain on the path of following their dreams. Never once did H.P., imagine that the endless time spent playing basketball, or singing for hours on end, would later lead to being discovered by legendary music mogul Andre Harrell through his partnership with Radio One's "Superstar Soul Search," becoming the first group signed to his label, Harrell Records. --- hamiltonparkmusic.com
