2009 release from the French Neo-Classical/Rock soprano and composer. Emma Shapplin started her music career in Classical music, studying Opera with different teachers, and then moved to Rock. She discovered that although Rock gave her a certain artistic freedom, it was still not enough for her appetite for self-expression. She decided to create her own style which became a combination of diverse Opera influences, lyrical poetry and modern Trance and Rock/Pop influences. 12 tracks. Sony. ---Editorial Reviews, amazon.com
