Coverdale, who fronted the Mark III and IV versions of Purple from 1973 to 1976, says: "It's a tribute - a homage. It's a huge thank you from me to Deep Purple for the opportunity I was given over 40 years ago. "I said to Ritchie Blackmore, 'You guys set me on an incredible journey that continues today and I couldn't have asked for better teachers.' The university of Deep Purple is an extraordinary, amazing school to learn from. We can't wait to play these songs in concert."
