

Greatest Ever! Rock (2008-2015) – 2014 Pop Punk CD3

Written by bluesever

Friday, 04 September 2015 15:44 - Last Updated Monday, 02 April 2018 22:05

Greatest Ever! Rock (2008-2015) – 2014 Pop Punk CD3

01. The Buzzcocks — Ever Fallen In Love With Someone (You Shouldn't've) 02. Generation X — Dancing With Myself 03. The Ramones — Sheena Is A Punk Rocker 04. The Undertones — Here Comes The Summer 05. The Jags — Back Of My Hand 06. The Jam — Going Underground 07. XTC — Senses Working Overtime 08. Tenpole Tudor — Swords Of A Thousand Men 09. Sham 69 — Hurry Up Harry 10. Jonathan Richman & The Modern Lovers — Roadrunner (Once) 11. Jilted John — Jilted John 12. The Damned — New Rose 13. Plastic Bertrand — Ça Plane Pour Moi 14. The Runaways — Cherry Bomb 15. Lene Lovich — Lucky Number 16. X-Ray Spex — Germ Free Adolescence 17. Toy Dolls — Nellie The Elephant 18. The Dickies — Banana Splits

Pop punk is a genre that blends the loud, fast-paced and sometimes sloppy sound of Punk Rock with the catchy sound of Pop music. Pop punk has existed since the inception of punk rock and has thus covered a lot of sonic and lyrical ground, so is often hard to define. For instance, many pop punk bands embrace a fun, light-hearted image, where as others adopt the opposite, an overly melancholic and serious sound.

The earliest pop punk band is often considered to be Ramones. Other bands from the 1970s to embrace a more pop-influenced sound include Buzzcocks and The Undertones. Pop punk became more of a defined sound in the 1980s with the growing Melodic Hardcore and Skate Punk sounds. Bands from this era include Screeching Weasel and The Queers. Pop punk began to break through into the mainstream in the 1990s with bands such as Green Day, Blink-182, and The Offspring. In the mid 2000s the mainstream success of pop punk began to wane and was eventually subsumed by the rising popularity of Emo-Pop. In the 2010s, bands like The Wonder Years and Joyce Manor ushered in a new wave of pop punk with Emo influences. rateyourmusic.com

Greatest Ever! Rock (2008-2015) – 2014 Pop Punk CD3

Written by bluesever

Friday, 04 September 2015 15:44 - Last Updated Monday, 02 April 2018 22:05

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex 4shared mediafire cloudmailru

back